Just the two of us. We alternate week to week, and whoever is up that Tuesday drives both ways — there in the morning and back afterwards. No splitting the day.

Tuesdays each

Brown

9 of 17 Tuesdays

Schapiro

8 of 17 Tuesdays

Why the counts differ. Seventeen Tuesdays doesn’t split in two, so one of us takes the extra. Brown starts, which puts the ninth on Brown and the eighth on Schapiro.

Swapping. Trade a date between the two of you whenever it helps; the printed order doesn’t need to change.
